Please read through the following rules and regulations regarding the ParkEMU Handicap Access Card:

- The ParkEMU Handicap Access Card is a benefit that is provided to drivers with a State-Issued handicap placard who hold a ParkEMU permit or have obtained a yellow free-parking sticker from the State of Michigan.
- The ParkEMU Handicap Access Card will expire upon expiration of the Card holder's current ParkEMU permit and must be either returned to ParkEMU once the permit has expired or brought to ParkEMU with a valid driver license and State-issued handicap placard for renewal once a valid permit for the following year or semester has been purchased.
- The ParkEMU Handicap Access Card is registered to and may be used by the driver listed above ONLY and is non-transferable.
- The ParkEMU Handicap Access Card holder is required to comply with all applicable laws, as well as any ParkEMU and University policies when using the ParkEMU Handicap Access Card. Failure to comply with all such applicable laws and policies may cause the ParkEMU Handicap Access Card holder to be subject to discipline by EMU, criminal charges, and/or removal of the access card by ParkEMU.
- Any lost or stolen ParkEMU Handicap Access Cards must be reported to ParkEMU at ParkEMUHelp@lazparking.com immediately.

I have read, understand, and agree to comply with the above conditions related to the ParkEMU Handicap Access Card.
